

Lealholm's Playground Charter

A safe, calm, fun and fair place to rest and play.

We as rights holders will...	Our Rights	Adults as duty bearers will...
• Make sure no-one is left out. • Speaking and acting kindly towards others. • Share equipment fairly. • Use equipment in the correct zones.	We have the right to play and rest. (Article 31) 	• To be vigilant and see problems as soon as possible. • To ensure they understand the different zones of the playground. • Make rotas for fair equipment sharing.
• If you're feeling sad, tell an adult. • Let adults know if we have a problem. • Be honest when saying what has happened. • To treat all adults with the same respect.	We have the right to give our opinion and for adults to listen and take this seriously. (Article 12) 	• Listen to all children's concerns at break and lunch times. • Any serious issues will be discussed in greater depth with an adult afterwards.
• Allow everyone to play what they want without discrimination. • Be mindful of age and ability when playing to ensure everyone is safe and enjoying themselves.	We have these rights regardless of my faith, my gender, my race, my age, my ability or my background (Article 2) 	• Encourage all children to play together. • Make sure games are safe for all children.
• Be respectful to others including when they change their minds. • If you have a small problem you may be able to solve by yourself, have a go before speaking to an adult. • Act calmly. • When you feel angry, use happy breathing and then your words to explain how you feel. • Say sorry if you make a mistake.	We have the right to live peacefully and have respect from others. (Article 29) 	• Create zoned areas for specific parts of the playground.

- Report incidents to an adult outside.
- Treat everyone how you wanted to be treated.
- Use equipment properly and safely.

We have the right to be protected from being hurt or mistreated in body and mind.
(Article 19)

- Take all incidents seriously and refer to class teacher.